

FREE PUBLIC LECTURE

with

Dr. Cheryl Forchuk, RN, PhD

Dr. Cheryl Forchuk is the Associate Director Nursing Research and a Professor in the Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing at the University of Western Ontario and a Professor in the Department of Psychiatry, Schulich School of Medicine and Dentistry. She is also an Assistant Director for the Lawson Health Research Institute, the research arm of the London hospitals.

Dr. Forchuk has published on many topics including transitional discharge, therapeutic relationships, denial and sexuality and transition from hospital to community.

For more information: publish.uwo.ca/~cforchuk

Housing, Poverty & Mental Health: Playing Musical Chairs

Moderated by: Ramona Dearing, Host
CBC Radio Noon

Monday, September 27, 2010

Health Science Centre Auditorium

7:00 - 8:30 pm

Newfoundland & Labrador
Nurses' Union

Co-Sponsored by the:

Association of Registered Nurses
of Newfoundland and Labrador

INNOVATIONS 2010