

INNOVATIONS 2010

Mental Health: Our Common Denominator

September 27 & 28, 2010

Register Now at www.arannl.ca

Keynote

Cheryl Forchuk, RN, PhD - Therapeutic Relationships:
Foundations and Innovations

Closing Plenary

Francoise Mathieu, M.Ed. CCC. - Running on Empty:
Understanding compassion fatigue

Sessions:

We Are All Mental Health Professionals: The role of the mental health nurse consultant in a general hospital

Help for our Heroes: A new type of engagement for veterans and current serving military and police members

Optimizing Mental Health Service Collaboration in a Rural NL Community Using a Primary Health Care Framework

Moving Upstream in the Prevention of Psychiatric Disorders: Promoting healthy maternal gestational weight gains to improve the mental health of offspring

Mental Health Act

Promoting Healthy Dating Relationships

Addictions: What health care providers should know

The Hope Program: Healthy opportunities for people with eating disorders

Ethical Dilemmas in Mental Health - Panel Discussion

Stigma and the media

Quality of Life - The Good News

Psychiatric Mental Health Nursing in Rural Settings: Innovative approaches to improve quality of life

The Benefits of Using an Interprofessional Education Module in an Undergraduate Mental Health Nursing Course

*Mental Health - Your clients,
Your family, Your own - this conference is for YOU!*

RNs Receive 9 CCP hours for attending Innovations

Funding Opportunities are available for RNs - visit the ARNNL website - Education & Research Trust for more information

Co-Sponsored by the:

Newfoundland & Labrador
Nurses' Union

Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland and Labrador