Common Questions

1. Will this be a juried panel?

Yes, your submission will be juried by artists from Newfoundland and Labrador. From this jury, 25 pieces will be selected.

2. Does the work have to be created in 2011?

No, but it must be in keeping with the theme for this year of Expressions of Hope.

3. Do I have to send artwork on July 14th?

No. You need to send your intent to submit work, and the dimensions of the piece, along with your completed submission form.

4. If I do not get selected for the exhibit, what will happen to my art?

Your art will be returned to you. If you are selected, your art will be showcased in the Mindscapes exhibit, and auctioned at the CMHA-NL Gala with a 50/50 split between the artist and CMHA. Half of the silent auction piece value will be yours.

CMHA-NL will be very careful with your entry. However, we will not be responsible for any loss or damage, by accident, theft, fire or otherwise. We will attempt to return pieces that are not chosen by the jury however, it is the artist's responsibility to send the art work to us on the date specified. We also will not insure any pieces that are sent to us. Mindscapes and CMHA-NL encourage the artist to include the work under his/her existing insurance policy before submitting to CMHA-NL. Please ensure where to send your piece if it is returned, and ensure that your art work has proper identification.
