NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR DIVISION

There is no health without mental health!

Volunteer with the CMHA-NL Board of Directors

The Canadian Mental Health Association, Newfoundland and Labrador Division (CMHA-NL), is seeking to fill a number of vacancies on its Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors seeks persons with lived experiences of mental illness, mental-health service providers, family caregivers, persons with a special interest in mental health and advocacy, and persons with experience in the non-profit or business sectors. Special consideration will be given to those residing outside the Avalon Peninsula, but all expressions of interest are welcome.

Duties/Responsibilities of a CMHA-NL Board Director:

- Attend and participate in bi-monthly board meetings (in person at the CMHA-NL office if possible, or by teleconference);
- Participate in fundraising efforts of the Division;
- Participate in Committees of the Division related to strategic directions (see below);
- Other related duties that may arise from time to time

Our Vision: The people of Newfoundland and Labrador will have good mental health and well-being through advocacy, education, information and excellence in service delivery.

Goals and Strategic Directions of the CMHA-NL's Strategic Plan 2008-11:

- Improve our governance and management systems;
- Enhance our advocacy program;
- Expand our presence throughout the province;
- Engage and support mental health consumers with specific consumer-oriented initiatives to support individuals and their families with mental health issues and mental illness

Interested individuals must be willing to become a paid member of the Division. If successful, you must supply CMHA-NL with a Certificate of Conduct. Please forward a letter of interest, a resume and two references by July 17, 2010 to the following address:
