

A collection of writings on mental illness, stigma and recovery in NL

Deadline for Submissions: November 28, 2008

This Application Form has been revised on September 4, 2008 to allow essays to be published anonymously. However, the true name and contact information of the writer must be identified on this Application Form as those persons whose essays have been selected will be contacted by the publisher for verification purposes. Every possible effort will be made to shield true identities where requested.

APPLICATION FORM

Please clearly print the following contact information.

Name:

Age (for entrants under 19):

Address:

Phone number:

Email:

Word Length:

Please check one. Do you identify as a:

- Mental health consumer
 Family member or caregiver of a mental health consumer(s)
 Mental health service provider
 Other (please indicate relationship): _____

Do you want your essay to be published anonymously?

- Yes
 No

I hereby certify that this work is original, that it has not been previously published, and that it is not submitted concurrently for publication elsewhere. I authorize Breakwater Books Ltd. to publish my essay in A Collection of Writings on Mental Illness, Stigma and Recovery in Newfoundland and Labrador (Title to be determined), with proceeds of the sale of the book to be dispersed among community-based, nonprofit mental-health organizations. I also accept the conditions below:

1. If your essay is chosen, you will be contacted. Breakwater Books Ltd. will publish your essay along with your name and location. In the case of anonymous entries, location will be specified as region of Newfoundland.
2. Excerpts from your essay may be read publicly at the book launch. If your essay is chosen, you will be invited to the launch party and you will receive a copy of the book.
3. Excerpts of your essay may be reproduced on a special web page on the CMHA-NL website devoted to addressing the issue of stigma.
4. Excerpts of your essay may be used in all types of promotion surrounding this book.

Signature of Author
Over 19

Signature of Parent or Guardian
If under 19 years of age